

John Wright-Harness maker----- 1906 Port Erie .

John Wright one of Fort Erie's best known figures; is a big man, bluff and hearty; but well known on account of having a way with general satisfaction. He has had a business here for several years; and has been on the council for a number of years and will run again in 1906.

Pictured in front of the store is Ed Fliege, all "snapped" and ready.

1901. Mr. John Wright is fitting up his barn for the care of farmers horses, rigs, etc., who may drive to Fort Erie to take the Ferry to the Pan American. This should prove a great convenience to those who wish to spend a day at the exposition, and leave their horses and rigs at a safe place.

Harness Making

IN ALL ITS BRANCHES

HARNESS REPAIRING also well, cheaply and quickly executed. Best of Stock and Workmanship always. In stock is kept all kinds of

Stable Supplies, Brushes,
Combs, Whips, Sponges,
Collars, Sweat Collars, Pads.

Also

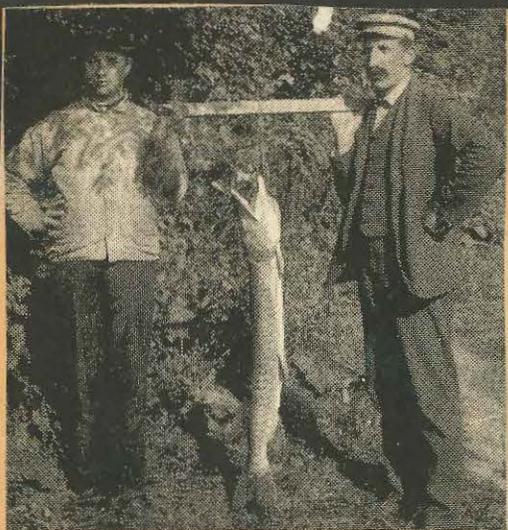

Boot and Shoe Repairing.

JOHN WRIGHT,

Cor. Forsyth and Victoria Streets,
7-24 Fort Erie, Ontario.

1902:::

1907

GOOD FISHING THOSE DAYS Back in 1907, Niagara river fishermen secured photographic evidence of their catches so that doubting Thomases could be convinced. This picture was snapped in that year on the riverbank just north of Fort Erie and shows Percy Wills and George Briggs proudly displaying the big one that didn't get away.

CANADA CUSTOMS. Pictured (left) members of the Canadian customs staff in 1906 and of the sextette, only one is still with His Majesty's Service. Reading from left is E. Blake Brown (retired), George H. Osborne, now chief clerk, and William Telfer, Richard Kemmelt, Byron Bennett, and George A. Clarke (all deceased).