E. A. Cruikshank

A search of our various indexes and logical sources has produced the following references to Brigadier-General Ernest Alexander Cruikshank:

1. E. A. Cruikshank was born in Bertie Township, Welland County, 29 June 185³, the son of Alexander Cruikshank of Peterhead, Scotland and Margaret (Milne) Cruikshank of Aberdeen, Scotland. He was educated at St. Thomas Grammar School and Upper Canada College after which time he was employed in the United States in newspaper work and in translation work for a commercial firm. Returning to Canada he served as reeve of Fort Erie and then sat as a member of the Welland County Council for eight years. He was elected Welland County warden in 1886. From 1904 to 1908 he acted as police magistrate for Niagara Falls and district before resigning to become keeper of military records at the Public Archives, a position he held until resigning in 1911.

His extensive military career began in 1877 when he received his commission as Ensign of the 44th Regiment. He was promoted to Captain in 1884, to Major in 1897 and from 1899 to 1904 he was Lieutenant-Colonel, Commanding the regiment. From 1904 to 1908 he was commanding officer of the 5th Infantry Brigade. In 1911 after resigning from the Public Archives he was appointed commander of military district number 13 and was promoted to Colonel in 1913 and again in September 1915 to Brigadier-General. He was attached to special services at Army headquarters in Ottawa from 1917 to 1918 and spent April to August, 1918 overseas on special services. From 1918 to 1921 he was Director of Historical Staff, General Staff in Ottawa.

On retirement in 1921 he spent much of his time in historical research and writing. A member of a number of historical societies, he also served for a number of years as Chairman of the Historical Sites and Monuments Board. He died in Ottawa on

Dear Mr. McDermott:

Re: Cruikshanks, Ernest Alexander

According to the records of St. Paul's Parish Ernest Alexander Crookshank (sic) the son of Alexander Crookshank --tailor and Margaret Crookshank was born on the 29th day of June, 1853 and baptised on October 9, 1853 by the Reverend Elliott Grasett, rector, the sponsors being William Anderson, Margaret Crookshank and James Jackson.

The William Anderson named as sponsor no doubt was the son of John Anderson rector of Fort Erie who died July 5, 1849.

Very truly yours,

The Reverend Canon William R. Anthony
Rector
