

CONSTANCE ROBINSON
BILLINGS

Constance Robinson Billings, of Fort Erie, died at Douglas Memorial Hospital, Fort Erie, on Friday, Jan. 22, 1988.

Born in Saskatoon, Sask., she lived in Fort Erie all her adult life and was a member of the Anglican church. She worked assisting in Camm's Drug Store.

The son of the late Joseph and Violet Robinson, Mrs. Billings is survived by a daughter, Malory (Mrs. Robert Slingerland) of Ridgeway; by two brothers, Joseph Robinson of Bobcaygeon and Robbie Robinson of Delta, B.C.; two sisters, May Hougaard of Sydney, B.C., and Beatrice (Mrs. Vance Turner) of Victoria, B.C.; and three grandchildren, Nicole and Brian Slingerland and Tom Billings.

She was predeceased by her husband, Omar Kilborn (Kib) Billings, in 1981; and by a son, Robert Kilborn, in 1986.

Funeral services were held at the chapel of the Williams Funeral Home, Ridgeway, on Monday, Jan. 25, 1988, at 11 a.m., with Rev. Kenneth Card-

BILLINGS, CONSTANCE R.

(D)

F.E. TIMES-REVIEW
JAN 26/88