HENRY EDWARD MILLER: 1830-1907. son of Andrew Jr. & Ellenore Palmer.

Henry Edward marr. Mary Haun: went by the Edward name.

They had no children. They were known as the creek Millers. They lived in a frame home that stood on the north side of MillersCreek just back from the river road. To-day a Niagara Pars building stands on the site. As they had no children the homestead farm and buildings were left to their three nephews: Edgar (son of John Palmer) & Benjamin & Harding, sons of William Miller. Harding was the last of the family to occupy the old homestead with his wife. He continued to live there after her death, closing off her room just as she left it. The place remained vacant for sometime after his death, and the property was taken over by the Pars Commission. The home was destroyed by fire, and many valuable papers referring to the Miller family were lost.

Left to nephews:: S.E. Angle of lot #14, in the 5th. con bordered in front by the Niagara River, in the south by a Creek running south easterly until it intersects a branch & ravine running north westerly across the road between lots 14 & 15 in the 5th. Con.

(part of the Andrew Miller Jr. & Ellenore Palmer homestead.) They were also left 100 acres: lot 14, in the 6th. con. in the 6th. con.

MILLER'S CREEK: & the Harding Miller home:: Situated on the north side of the creek between the roadway running west and the bank of the creek. The old home was built by Andrew Miller & Ellenore Palmer when they were married in 1822 or 24.

Henry Miller 1830 son of Andrew & Ellenore Palmer arr. Mary Augusta 1826-1900. 1908.

As the second wife of Henry: Mary Haun had died in 1900, he devised his homestead farm, composed of the north part of lot 14, con. 5. in the Township of Bertie and also lot 14 con. 6 N.R. containing 114 acres more or less to his nephews:: William Franklin, Benjamin Edward: Harding Edward: & Edgar Miller: to share & share alike.

Harding Miller 1892- 1963 was the last of the Millers to live in the old homestead. He married Maybel Church and they had one daughter. On Jan. 4th. 1955 he was a widow and still paying the mortgage. He continued to live there after the death of his daughter and wife. On May 8th. 1957. Harding e. & a Bernice H. Benner married woman sold the lands to the Niagara Parks Commission. The home stood empty for some time and shortly after was destroyed by fire. Bert and Audrie Miller visited the old home after it was vacated and mentioned that it was full of Miller historical papers: all of which were consumed in the fire.
