

WILLIAM RUSSEL:: lot 15; North west cr. of Bertie and Stanton Sts.
81 Bertie St.

1820. Crown to Benjamin Hardison.
1823. Benjamin Hardison willed to his daughters
Mary Jane and Martha Ann lot 15 and other lands.
184-3 B.&.S. Kenneth Reid and his wife Mary Jane to James Stanton.
Sept 6 1855. James Stanton to WM. Russel:1/2 acre lot 15& 16
on the north side of Bertie.
Mar.28.1867. Wm. Russel to Jane Eden.
etc. etc.
July 3 1879. Jane Eden to Rose Coulthurst.
May 1905. Rose Coulthurst & John Coulthurst to WM. Wharton.
Apr. 1.1925. Wm. Wharton widower to Robert W. Clark.physician( Eva H. wife)
Mar.24. Grant Christopher P.Maybee & wife to Margaret Hopley.
Aug. 1947. Grant: E.Lacon Maybee widow to Robert S. Smith & wife:J.T.
Aug.1 1953. Robert Smith & wife to Otta Planschan & wife
Ann: J.T.

---

Well,s Mill: West side of Goderich situated on the hill.

Circa 1960's (no confirmed date found) a group of businessmen in Fort Erie and Bertie formed a group for the construction of a Windmill on Goderich ST.

As follows: Charles Treble F.E.;;J.P & Insurance agent.

WM. Rainsord: F.E.:;: Merchant.

WM. RUSSEL. F.E. ::: Lumber Merchant.

Benjamin A. Thompson: F.E.:Mill Wright.

Alfred A Rose: Bertie.:;: Mill Wright.

This group sold the business to George Lweis in 1877 and shortly after he sold to Mercy Wells the wife of Joseph Wells who was to continue the operation.

JUNE 26, 1930

JEAN RUSSEL :::

In the passing away of Miss Jean Russel, on Thursday last, Fort Erie loses a well-know and highly respected citizen. Miss Russel was the second daughter of the late William Russel and Janet Dobbie Russel, pioneers of Welland County. Her entire life, with the exception of a few early years spent in the Dobbie household had been passed in the Murray St. house in which she was born. Coupled with a deep love of home, Miss Russel had a great love of outdoor life. She was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, and the daughters of the Empire; took an active part in the workings of that organization, and in all movements pertaining to the welfare of the community, as well as a keen in the politics of her country; she was a life-long liberal.

Miss Russel with her sister Mrs. Mc. Farland, spent the winter in Tulsa Okla., returning to Fort Erie, May 31st. While her health had not been perfect, she had been able to be out occassionally, until thursady morning when she was taken suddenly ill with a sinking spell, and passed away peacefully at 11.30.

Serving a two sisters Mrs. Helen Mc. Farland of Ironwood Michigan, and Mrs. Fred Unfug, of Walsenburg Colorado, and several nieces and nephews. The services at the home were conducted by Rev. Robert Duncanson of St. Andrew's Church. Internment was at Fairview Cemetary Niagara Falls.

Those who acted as pall- bearers were: W.M. Dougall, A.T. Elliott, J.W. Hamilton, W. C. Tait, Crawford Mc. Credie, 7 Grant Jenkinson.