

THE JACOB SIDER FAMILY:::

In the spring of 1788, Jacob Sider and his wife and three small children Anna, John and Elizabeth crossed the Niagara River on a raft; having left Lancaster County Pennsylvania, some weeks earlier. They settled initially at Short Hills, near Welland, where they stayed six years, before moving to Bertie Township.

About the year 1794 Jacob and Mary settled 100 acres of land the west halves of lot 14, & 15, con 9 at Elack Creek. This land was sold to Jacob's brother in law Bishop John Winger in 1802.

In 1797 Jacob petitioned for land, and was awarded 400 acres in Willoughby, registered in 1802.

In 1800, Jacob obtained 200 acres of property from John Powell in Bertie Township. lot 9 & 10 in the 10th con. the north side of Bowen Rd.

In 1807 Jacob purchased 200 acres lot 11 & 12 con. 14 from Robert Hamilton.

In 1814 Jacob sold 100 acres of land west halves of lots 11 & 12 con 14 to his son and on his death the property went to Abraham Winger and Magdalena Jacob's daughter.

In 1816 Jacob sold 100 acres lot 4 con. 3 Willoughby to Jacob Gonder .

In 1821 Jacob sold 100 acres the east halves of lot 11 & 12 to his second son Jacob and in 1826 to Jacob's son Abraham.

In 1824 Jacob sold 100 acres of land lot 3 con. 3 in Willoughby to his son Martin; who kept it till 1839 when he sold.

In 1824 Jacob sold 100 acrs of lot 5 Con 3 Willoughby to Moses Byers the husband of Jacob's daughter Anna. Moses and Anna sold this property to Peter S hisler in 1846.

In 1824 Jacob settled 100 acres lot 4 con.5 in Willoughby to his daughter Barbara who never married. This passed to her brother John following her death in 1832.

In 1824 Jacob sold 100 acres of the east halves of lot 9 & 10 con 10 Bertie to his son Christian and this later passed to his descendants.

The east halves of lot 11 & 12 con 10 Bertie Township; comprised the homestead farm of Jacob and Mary Sider. This property passed to Jacob's youngest son Martin on Jacob's death in 1825.
