

BURNS, George E. — On Friday, March 2, 1984, at the Greater Niagara General Hospital, George E. Burns, 69 years of age, retired employee of Canadian Carborundum, served overseas during World War II with the 33rd Battery 6th Anti-Tank R.C.A., beloved husband of Ruth, Niagara Falls, dear father of George E. Burns Jr., Toronto, and James (Randy) Burns, Niagara Falls.

A graveside service will be held at Fairview Cemetery on Wednesday morning March 7, 1984 at 9:30 o'clock. As an expression of sympathy those who wish may make a memorial donation to the Ontario Heart Foundation.

BURNS, GEORGE E.

(10)

NIAGARA FALLS REVIEW
MARCH 6/84. P. 19