

OLD RESIDENT PASSES AWAY

William Vahey, formerly of Bridgeburg, died at Niagara Falls

The death of William Vahey, of Niagara Falls, South, Ont., came suddenly last Friday. He was sixty-eight years of age.

The deceased was a former resident of Bridgeburg, having lived here eighteen years prior to his moving to the Falls in 1908. He had always taken a prominent part in the affairs of general interest. He helped to get the village incorporated in 1895, and was elected a member of the first council. He had also been a member of the council since then, and was also prominently identified with the formation of the Board of Trade.

Mr. Vahey was sincerely liked and respected by all who knew him, and this paper joins with many friends in sympathizing with his family for their great loss.

Besides a wife Mr. Vahey is survived by two sons, Everett of Port Huron, Mich., and Charles K. Vahey, and also two daughters, Mrs. Brown of New York, and Miss Augusta living at home.

The funeral took place on Monday morning from his late residence at Niagara Falls to Grimsby. It was attended by quite a number of the family's friends from Bridgeburg.
