HAPPY 75TH

Mrs. Bert Spoar celebrated her 75th birthday Monday, Dec. 19 with family and friends.

Thea Spoar marks 75th year

Theodore Spoar celebrated her 75th birthday on Monday, December 19. She was born in Hamilton, Ontario. Thea was treated to a surprise dinner by her four children at Lee's Golden Palace and a party afterwards.

In attendance were her husband, Bert Spoar, Fred and Fran Spoar with children Peter, Dan and Ryan; Tom Spoar with friend, Lorraine Picchete; Bertille Hodgson with her children Christopher, Charlotte and Jennifer; Jim and Lorrie Spoar with son, Stephen; sister-in-law Eileen Smith and friend Mary Graydon and Jennifer Thompson.

Celebrations held at new centre

The Douglas Heights Senior Centre was built and furnished largely through the efforts of the Fort Erie Lions Club with financial assistance of various government departments.

It's a building of which Fort Erie can be proud, the Fort Erie Senior Citizens Club No. 96 said recently.

On Tuesday, Dec. 20, the 110-members enjoyed a Christmas dinner with guest of honor Mayor Teal and his wife.

The dinner was followed by a tour of the building while the Concert Club prepared to perform a concert of music. Many favorite carols were sung. George Uhrig gave some accordion solos. The Hoedowners gave forth with "Jingle Bells" to the enjoyment of all. Santa Claus gave out some gifts to the lucky ones who had the right numbers.

The dinner and concert were greatly appreciated, almost as much as those attending enjoyed the new facilities.

Heritage Week set

Ontario Heritage Week '89 will be celebrated across the province February 20-26.

Heritage Week is designed to increase awareness of the scope and value of heritage resources and to encourage participation in their preservation and development. It's also a time to salute the thousands of volunteers involved in the heritage movement.

Heritage Day, the third Monday in February, has been celebrated widely across Canada since 1974; Ontario introduced a weeklong celebration in 1986.

To assist individuals and groups in planning and promoting the week, the ministry of culture and communications and The Ontario Heritage Foundation are again producing Heritage Week posters and promotional materials. The slogan is "Ontario's heritage -- take it to heart."
