

W.T. MALKIN:::

Mr. Malkin was elected with a majority of 134 over Lou Douglas. He was a merchant for many years in the village of Amigari; and prior to the amalgamation of the towns; Mr. Malkin played a leading role in the supervision of Bridgeburg. He died at the age of 74.

He was a former councillor, and Reeve and a life time Conservative. It was in 1912 that he purchased the grocery business of the late Alfred B. Hurrel, and he operated , the store for forty years.

He had two daughters, Eva and Ann and two sons Aubrey and Gilbert.

W T MALKIN who was elect.

Mrs. Malkin died in 1977 burried Greenwood.