

CARR, WILLIAM, (4) F.E. TIMES REVIEW Ap 25/89 p 16

WILLIAM CARR

(SEE BACK)

William Joseph Carr of 467 Niagara Blvd., Fort Erie died at Greater Niagara General Hospital on April 22, 1989.

Born in Albany, N.Y. on January 16, 1918 he was an attorney.

Mr. Carr was a graduate of Fordham University in New York City with a B.A., of the Albany Law School with an L.L.B.-J.D. He was a retired principal hearing examiner of the New York State Social Services and was a member of M.E.N.S.A. He was a 3rd Degree Knights of Columbus Fort Erie Council No. 3320 and served in the United States was a former member of The Albany and New York State Bar Association, Administrative Law Judges Association and the Fordham Glee Club.

Navy in World War II. Mr. Carr

Predeceased by his first wife, Naomi, Mr. Carr is survived by his wife Mary K. Davey-Carr and his children: Elizabeth Lapointe (Claude) of Aberdeen, Maryland, Joan Carr of Albany, N.Y., Kathlee Carr of West Seneca, N.Y., Christine Woodam (Alton) of Torrington, Connecticut, William Jr. (Margaret) of Albany, N.Y., Margaret Sarles (Jack) of Mount Kisco, N.Y., John (Natalie) of Voorheesville, N.Y., Richard and Barbara King (Steven).

CONTINUED... ON REVERSE