

HENRY THYRET & WIFE JESSIE RAY THYRET.::: 166 Stanton St.

1867- 1947.

after the death of John Ray George Thyret took over the old Ray homestead ,that was just a story and a half frame cottage, built a new cement block around it. He married Jessie Ray. They had a son Al who married Daisy.

Henry Thyret was a contractor and built the home of Ollie Nix & wife Pearl no. 229 East side of Stanton, south of Bertie. It was a large two story cement block home .built around 1907. Henry and Jessie spit and she moved in with her brother John Ray to a small cottage on N.S. of Murray, which later burnt.

ALBERT THYRET married Daisy. Their children two girls and 1 son::

Violette Thyret Bremner:: Cildren: Daissy: Frank: Harry.

2nd. husband: Al Hopley. both deceased.

Harry Thyret: SINGLE: killed second world war.

Thyret St. named in his honor.

Thelma Thyret :Galbreth: Waterloo St.

1 son.

---

The first home of all & Daisy Thyret stood on the north side of bertie ST.No.137. It was a two story brick home built by Al. It was here that his three children were born. Also also built a home on the east side of High St. no.177, but did not occupy it. They moved into their first home on Bertie around 1928. By the late 30's they had moved to the south side of Bertie No. 108. It was just west of Crocker's store that stood on the W. cr. of High & Bertie. This was a one story cottage that had been converted from a small store. After death of her husband Daisy married a Mr. Hardison.

---

Oliver Nicks and Pearl Thyret Nicks moved from block house to 73 Murray ST. N.S. Here they started the Lillie White a bleach comp. that was popular in the village. They moved again to the S.S. of Murray where they built a large frame building to house their large family and business, no. 108.