United Brethren: Niagara District.

This branch of the church dates back to 1855, when a church was organized at Gondors Chapel, Black Creek; under the leadership of E. Price. Others taking up the leadership of the work in the district were, H. Kropp, A.B. Sherk and D.B. Sherk. By 1861 there were four meeting houses and the Mission was organized into a circuit.

Shortly after there were five church groups: Young's: Garrison Rd.: Stevensville: Black Creek, and Mc.Kennies, which operated out of a school house.

In 1861 Sherkston came into being when it was decided that Garrison Rd. Church would be divided and one formed at Sherkston. It was not till 1870 that the Sherkston Church was organized into a church class.

Eventually only four churches remained: Black Creek: Stevensville: Garrison Rd. & Sherkston.
